

DIVERSITY IN CALIFORNIA'S OIL AND GAS INDUSTRY

The oil and gas industry is an important part of California's economy—responsible for 368,100 jobs and more than $26.4 billion in annual state and local tax revenues that fund vital services like schools and public safety.

California's industry provides diverse opportunities Californians; as job duties vary, so do the required skills and education levels.

368,100
JOBS

$26.4 BILLION

ANNUAL STATE AND LOCAL TAX REVENUE

EDUCATION

The oil and gas industry offers diverse employment opportunities across the educational attainment spectrum.

MORE THAN ONE THIRD OF ALL WORKERS HAVE HIGH SCHOOL CREDENTIALS OR LESS.

AGE

The oil and gas industry employs a young workforce, with 75% of employees under the age of 54.

LATINO | 29.1%

RACE / ETHNICITY

WHITE | 50.2%

The workforce of California's oil and gas industry is ethnically and racially diverse.

AFRICAN AMERICAN | 5.3%

ASIAN | 13.0%

Did You Know?

1 in 50
California jobs are directly related to oil and gas.

SOURCES: QWI; ANALYSIS BY LAEDC